Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper

at OMC Chapel, Bldg 4280

Tuesday, 28 February, 1800

The food will be prepared by the Knights of Columbus. There is no charge.

Shrove Tuesday is the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday which is the first day of Lent. It's a day of penitence, to clean the soul, and a day of celebration as the last chance to feast before Lent begins.

Giving up foods – but not being wasteful. In the old days there were many foods that observant Christians would not eat during Lent: foods such as meat and fish, fats, eggs, and milky foods.

So that no food was wasted, families would have a feast on the shroving Tuesday, and eat up all the foods that wouldn't last the forty days of Lent.

The need to eat up the fats gave rise to the French name Mardi Gras; meaning fat tuesday.
Pancakes became associated with Shrove Tuesday
as they were a dish that could use up all the eggs, fats and milk in the house with just the addition of flour.
